IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY FOR STEW PTY LTD

METHOD OF INSTALLATION

The Buyer assumes all responsibilities and risks in relation to the final location and installation of the Goods. Any advice that the Seller (STEW Pty Ltd) may give to the Buyer in relation to the installation and/or fixing of the Goods is given without any assumption of responsibility for the advice given by the Seller. The Buyer assumes responsibility to check and clarify installation and/or fixing advice with an appropriate qualified engineer or other equivalent professional adviser. The Buyer shall have no recourse of any kind against the Seller in respect of any such advice.

DELIVERY OF GOODS

If deliveries are made by the Buyer's carrier (excluding the Seller's carrier) then the Goods will become the responsibility of the Buyer immediately after leaving the Seller's premises. The Seller will accept no liability for damage to Goods supplied once they leave the Seller's premises.
